ADVERTISEMENTS.

MR. SPENCER T. HALL, MESMERIST and PHRENOLOGIST, may be consulted daily at his Residence, 59, Pall-mall, London. Private Parties visited, or engagements made for Morning or Evening Lectures illustrated by experiments.

TO PRINTERS.—To be DISPOSED OF, a BOOK-WORK and JOBBING OFFICE, which has been carried on by the present proprietor for nearly 30 years, who wishes to retire. The premises are low-tenanted, in a central situation near the Inns of Court, and present a good opportunity to any one having some business connection. Purchase-money about 600*l*. Letters from principals only, to be addressed, pre-paid, to S. M. Peck's Coffee House, Fleet-street.

TO PRINTERS.—WANTED by a young man a SITUATION as PRESSMAN and COMPOSITOR in a jobbing office, in town or country. Address, pre-paid, to H. F. 23, Cannon-street, City.

A PRINT and BOOK SELLER, possessing a competent knowledge of the trades, whose business does not occupy him during the summer months, is anxious to TRAVEL for some respectable house in either of the above lines, for a term of two or three months.

Applications by letter to be made to C. C. care of Messrs. Woodward and Castle, Bull Head-court, Newgate-street.

CITY BUSINESS.—To be DISPOSED OF, a STATIONARY and PRINTING CONCERN, within 200 yards of the Bank of England, doing 50*l*. per week. The stock, fixtures, and a first-rate connection may all be had for less than 700*l*. part of which can remain for a period at interest; or the stock can be considerably reduced to suit the convenience of such as require a good business without the trouble and expense of establishing one. The most satisfactory reasons given for the present owner retiring, by applying per letter, previous to an interview, to R. O., at Mr. R. King's, accountant, 20, Lawrence-lane, Cheapside. Rent of premises very moderate.

SCHOLASTIC TRANSFER.—To be DISPOSED OF, immediately, an old-established and flourishing classical and commercial BOARDING SCHOOL for young gentlemen. The mansion and grounds are very extensive, and delightfully situate a few miles westward of London. This is an excellent and very profitable opening for any clergyman or gentleman capable of conducting a large and first-rate school. Address to Rev. H. Nicolson, 6, John-street, Adelphi, Strand, London.

A SCHOOL to be DISPOSED OF.—A favourable opening for a young gentleman entering the scholastic profession.—An old-established BOARDING and DAY SCHOOL, in the south of England, healthily situate near London, and in the line of a railroad. The detached school-room, spacious play-ground, and other commodious premises, at a low rent. No one need apply who cannot command 300*l*. Apply by letter to Omega, 5, Warwick-court, London.

PATENT PICTURE RAIL MOULDING, for HANGING PAINTINGS and PRINTS; and IMITATION GOLD FRAMES.

Artis est celare artem.—This desideratum is most satisfactorily obtained by the above inventions. The rail moulding combines ornament and utility, as it forms an elegant bottom member of the cornice, superseding the expense of a gilt moulding, which it resembles, and has strength to suspend the largest pictures. The frames require only to be seen to be appreciated, being sharp in effect, of equal durability and appearance to gold, and at considerably less cost.

Artists and Collectors are invited to inspect Specimens at Mr. Nottingham's, 14, Fish-street Hill.

TO BOOKSELLERS, Stationers, News-venders, and Librarians.—Persons having a bona fide BUSINESS to DISPOSE OF, and such as will bear searching inquiry, may address to H. A. P., at Johnson's News Office, Mortimer-street, Cavendish-square. Profits not less than 400*l*. per annum.

ENLARGEMENT of the LYNN ADVERTISER and WEST NORFOLK HERALD.—JOHN THEW, Bookseller, Stationer, &c. begs to draw the attention of the Trade and others interested in local newspapers to the LYNN ADVERTISER and WEST NORFOLK HERALD, which he is about to enlarge, and as it is the only weekly journal printed in Western Norfolk, it offers a great inducement for parties advertising in that populous district. The LYNN ADVERTISER has a good circulation in the place where it is printed, which contains a population of 18,000 souls, as well as in Wisbech, Downham, Swaffham, Thetford, Dereham, Fakenham, and Wells, and in the whole extent of country surrounding the above-named market towns; besides which, it has a large connection in the eastern division of the county, and in the Isle of Ely, Suffolk, Cambridgeshire, Huntingdonshire, and Lincolnshire.

Standard Works and Periodicals promptly and carefully noticed, and every measure is adopted to further the interests of those whose announcements are found in the columns of the paper.

* * The Enlargement takes place 12th of July.
Nos. 1 and 2, High-street, Lynn.

SHOWER BATHS, with CURTAINS, 10s. 6d.

each.—Full-size Portable Shower Baths, very strong and japanned, with curtains and copper valve, 10s. 6d. each. Pillar Shower Baths, with copper conducting tubes, brass force-pump and top, complete with curtains and japanned, from 60s. The registered improved ditto, 90s. Hand Shower Baths, japanned, 3s. 6d. RIPPON and BURTON'S SHOW-ROOM for BATHS is now complete, and contains, besides toilet sets japanned in imitation of every fancy wood, china, &c. all the requisites for the season, which they are offering 30 per cent. under any other house where quality is considered, while their stock is without any equal either for extent, variety, or freshness. Detailed catalogues, with engravings of baths.

THE PERFECT SUBSTITUTE FOR SILVER.—The high estimate formed by the public during the ten years RIPPON and BURTON'S chemically purified material has been before it (made into every useful and ornamental article usually made in silver, possessing, as it does, the characteristic purity and durability of silver), has called into existence the deleterious compounds of "Albata Plate," "Berlin Silver," and other so-called substitutes; they are at best but bad imitations of the genuine articles manufactured, with the view of satisfying the purchaser, by Rippon and Burton, and sold only by them.

CALIGRAPHIC BLACK LEAD PENCIL,

MANUFACTURED BY E. WOLFF AND SON,

No. 23, CHURCH-STREET, SPITALFIELDS, LONDON.

The Caligraphic Pencils have been invented by E. Wolff and Son, after the expenditure of much time and labour. They are the result of many experiments, and every effort that ingenuity and experience could suggest has been made to insure the highest degree of excellence, and the profession may rely upon their being all that can be desired.

They are perfectly free from grit; and for richness of tone, depth of colour, delicacy of tint, and evenness of texture, they are not to be equalled by the best Cumberland lead that can be obtained at the present time, and are infinitely superior to every other description of Pencil now in use.

The Caligraphic Pencils will also recommend themselves to all who use the Black Lead Pencil as an instrument of professional importance or recreation, by their being little more than half the price of other Pencils:—

H, HH, HHH, HB, B, BB, F, FF, W*	4s. per dozen.
BBB, EHB	8s. "
BBBB	12s. "

* This Pencil is particularly recommended for writing and counting-house use.

An allowance on every gross purchased by artists or teachers. May be had of all artists' colourmen, stationers, booksellers, &c.

A single Pencil will be forwarded as a sample, upon the receipt of postage stamps to the amount.

CAUTION.—To prevent imposition, a highly-finished and embossed protection wrapper, difficult of imitation, is put round each dozen of Pencils. Each Pencil will be stamped on both sides, "Caligraphic Black Lead, E. Wolff & Son, London."

* * The usual trade allowance to stationers, booksellers, &c.

A show-box or specimen gratis with an order for a gross of Pencils.

DIMES AND ELAM'S PREPARED CANVAS WITH INDIA RUBBER GROUND.

This article having now stood the test of time, and of daily increasing reputation, is worthy the consideration of those who wish to preserve their works. The ground used in preparing this canvas renders it perfectly secure from CRACKING, PEELING, and the effects of damp or heat.

Those artists who are about to enter into competition for the Prizes offered by her Majesty's Commissioners, the Art-Union, or other bodies for the promotion of the Fine Arts, will find much advantage in this canvas, as the picture when finished may be taken off the stretcher and rolled without the slightest fear of injury in carriage.

Prepared of any dimensions, texture, or colour, by DIMES and ELAM, 91, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, where may be had every Material used in the Fine Arts.

PYNE'S MACGUELP.

DIMES AND ELAM

Req. to call the attention of Artists and Amateurs to the New MACGUELP, so strongly recommended by Mr. PYNE in the ART-UNION for July.

It presents the firmest and ultimately hardest vehicle, and is susceptible of any state between that of extreme diluteness and viscosity. It favours that state of the opaque colours which allows of their being infinitely broken and interlaced, without becoming mixed, and conveys to the transparent pigments perfect steadiness.

Prepared and sold by DIMES and ELAM, Artists' Colour-Makers, 91, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, London.

* * An extensive assortment of Crayons, White and Tinted Drawing Papers, and every Material that is used for Drawing, Painting, and the Fine Arts.

WILL OF MISS LINWOOD.—REQUEST TO THE CROWN.—The will and codicil of the late Miss Mary Linwood (whose copies of pictures executed in worsted have attracted general attention) have just been proved in Docters'-commons by B. Markland, esq. and W. Markland, esq. the nephews, and two of the executors of the deceased. She bequeaths to the Leicester infirmary 100l. "to be applied to the laudable purposes of that institution;" and to "the reigning sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland my Salvator Mundi, after Carlo Dolce, as an heirloom to the Crown for ever." (Her Majesty has signified her acceptance of this wonderful work.) After a few specific bequests, she directs that if her collection (exhibiting in Leicester-square) is not bought in one lot, as a private collection, it may be disposed of by auction, and the proceeds of the sale, with her other property, divided into seventeen equal parts, which she bequeaths among the same number of her relatives. Her personal property is sworn under 10,000l. within the province of Canterbury.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO ECONOMISTS, HOTEL KEEPERS, FAMILIES, and all large CONSUMERS OF TEA.—For the convenience of residents in the country, we engage to supply Six Pounds of TEA, free of carriage, to any part of the United Kingdom, at the lowest Wholesale Prices for Cash.

Orders are expected to be accompanied with a Post-office Order for the amount, or if a reference be given to a respectable party in London, a remittance on receipt and approval of the Goods will suffice.

We beg to annex a partial selection:—

WADE'S LONDON REVIEW: a Critical Journal and Magazine.

OURSELVES AND PROSPECTS.

At the completion of our first volume, we must address a few words to our friends and supporters. We do this more willingly because it affords us an opportunity of thanking them for the success which has attended our labours, through their kind patronage. When we commenced the Review, we did so with the firm conviction that all the periodicals of the day were either exclusively commercial, sectarian, or tied up by political partisanship, and that the portion not engaged in these subjects, but dealing in lighter literature, had become "effete in youth," by being overlaid by a host of annuitant novel writers and romancers, claiming for themselves the exclusive privilege of catering for the public. We have seen nothing to induce us to alter our opinion, much to confirm it; and the monthly changes which occur in periodical publications are a strong evidence that the public and publishers do not approve of the thralldom they have been kept in.

We promised our readers able reviews and original matter. A review, amalgamating with it the more entertaining literary relaxation of a magazine, equal in value to the high-priced monthlies and quarterlies; superior in liberality and independence, and at less than half the price of our contemporaries. The tools of no party, literary or political; adverse to party warfare struggling for place; determined not to espouse the quarrels of any party for party purposes. We have most unflinchingly exposed abuses;—indulged in commentaries on passing events; and without being needlessly offensive, have put forth our criticism with a frankness and openness, and, we trust, ability which has secured for us the public favour and esteem.

Such has been our past career. A few words as to our future prospects. We have now had time to look around us, and see what accession of literary talent there was available; and we are happy to inform our friends that we have made arrangements with several of the first writers of the day, which we are sure will prove satisfactory to all parties. We, therefore, intend for the future to be more diversified in our contents, and whilst we devote a considerable space to literature, science, and the fine arts, to lighten our pages with tales, poetry, and the drama, and articles of interest and ability, which will be acceptable to the general reader. We anticipate a brilliant success—we do more—we intend to deserve it.

Published on the 1st of every month, price 1s. and Quarterly, price 3s. at Wade's London Review Office, 1, Whitefriars-street, Fleet-street, and to be had of all booksellers.

On the 1st of July will be published, price Half-a-Crown, No. 1. of THE OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE REVIEW.

CONTENTS:—

1. The Policy of the New Generation.
2. European Diplomats.
3. Mrs. Bray's Novels and Romances.
4. Thiers' History of the Consulate and the Empire.
5. The Prospects of Poetry.
6. Whitehall.
7. The Condition of the Poor Question.—Critical and Miscellaneous Notices.

In announcing the "Oxford and Cambridge Review," it may be well that we should, as concisely as may be, explain the course we shall pursue in its conduct, the principles to which we shall steadfastly adhere, and the grounds whereon we rely for an enlightened and liberal support.

We propose in this Review to consider and temperately discuss all those momentous subjects in Religion, Literature, and Science, to which the minds of thinking men are directed in this age of inquiry, and which, through the influence of a free press, are daily, almost hourly, exciting an interest of the very last importance, whether regarded with a reference to the present or the future.

Our venerated Universities, which have hitherto been unrepresented in the literary world, shall have our special attention. To this end, we have secured the assistance of gentlemen both at Oxford and Cambridge, whose talent, experience, and station inspire us with the confidence that in this work we shall be enabled to supply a desideratum, the existence of which almost amounts to a national disgrace.

We agree with a talented contemporary that, to create what becomes the public opinion of a nation, is a great work. The discussion and decision of what future legislation shall enact, is the daily business of a man of letters. Deeply impressed with the responsibility of this task, and conscious of the difficulties which ever oppose the enunciation of sentiments adverse to what is termed the "spirit of the age,"—we shall not shrink from expressing, independently and honestly, the conviction we have attained by a mature and anxious deliberation.

We shall never recognise the humiliating plea of expediency. "Luke-warmness and want of seal are the malady of the age." (Jeremy Taylor.) We are persuaded that it is the Church mainly which can minister to the diseased mind of the nation. In the maintenance, therefore, of our Catholic and Apostolic Church—in the resuscitation of her primitive offices and venerated simplicity—we see the surest, perhaps the single, panacea for our accumulated evils. We hold that "THERE ARE YET GREAT TRUTHS TO TELL, IF WE HAD EITHER THE COURAGE TO ANNOUNCE, OR THE TEMPER TO RECEIVE THEM." (Coningsby.)

Beautifully printed in 18mo.

PRICE ONLY ONE SHILLING EACH.

THE LIBRARY OF IRELAND will consist of a series of monthly volumes, price one shilling each, printed with the best type and on fine paper, and therefore cheap, and procurable by every one.

These volumes will contain accounts of the great epochs and events of Irish history—Memoirs of our principal Generals, Statesmen, and Writers—Historical and Familiar Fictions, Collections of National Poetry, &c. &c. They will be written with as much care as if the price were as high as has been usual for such works.

Some subjects, not directly national, but of peculiar interest to a rising nation, will be included in the series: such are, Memoirs of Great Popular Leaders, Revolutions, and other controlling events.

The Series will be published in the following order:—

Now ready. THE HISTORY of the VOLUNTEERS of 1782.

By THOMAS MAC NEVIN, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

Aug. 1st. THE BALLAD POETRY of IRELAND. Edited (with an Introduction and Notes) by CHARLES GAVAN DUFFY, Esq.

*. This volume will contain Ballads by Moore, Banim, Griffin, Furlong, Anster, Ferguson, Carleton, Lover, Mangin, Callanan, and a host of other Irish writers.

Sept. 1st. RODY the ROVER; or, THE RIBBONMAN. By WILLIAM CARLETON, Esq. author of "Valentine M'Clutchy," &c.

Oct. 1st. LIFE of WOLFE TONE. By THOMAS DAVIS, Esq.

Nov. 1st. LIFE of HUGH O'NEILL. By JOHN MITCHELL, Esq.

Dec. 1st. THE REBELLION of 1798. By M. J. BARRY, Esq.

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL.

PATRONIZED BY

"THE QUEEN,"

AND THE ROYAL FAMILY OF GREAT BRITAIN,

AND THE SEVERAL

SOVEREIGNS AND COURTS OF EUROPE.

This ELEGANT, FRAGRANT, and TRANSPARENT OIL, in its preservative, restorative, and beautifying qualities for the Human Hair, is unequalled throughout the whole world. It preserves and reproduces the hair, even at an advanced period of life; prevents it from falling off or turning grey; restores grey hair to its original colour; frees it from scurf and dandriff, and renders it soft, silky, curly, and glossy—Facts abundantly proved by innumerable testimonials, which are open for inspection at the proprietors'. It preserves its virtues unimpaired by the change of climate, and is alike in use from the frigid to the torrid zone—from the assemblies of St. Petersburg to those at Calcutta and the remote East.

For CHILDREN, it is especially recommended as forming the basis of A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR!!!

Price 3s. 6d.—7s.—Family Bottles (equal to four small) 10s. 6d.; and double that size, 21s.

CAUTION.—Each genuine bottle has the words

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL

engraved in two lines on the Wrapper; and on the back of the Wrapper nearly 1,500 times, containing 29,028 letters.

*. All other "MACASSAR OILS" are FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS!!!

Sold by the Proprietors, A. ROWLAND & SON, 20, Hatton-garde London, and by Chemists and Perfumers.
